Excerpt: .were to marry, what would be your expectations? If I got the woman I liked, I should expect to be very happy and comfortable, returned the youth, in apparent simplicity. You are so droll! Stapleton; but you know you are a favourite of mine. Do not, however, think me impertinently inquisitive. It is no business of mine, to be sure; but young people are so careless about their future prospects, What I meant was, in case of your profession not proving satisfactory; and the most brilliant talents, we know, are not always appreciated as they deserve. I really am anxious for your welfare, my dear young friend: in such a case, now, how could you commence housekeeping? Oh, the governor must fork out, I fancy; that is, my father, you know, must come down. There s nothing else for it that I know of. You...
