Congressional Sales Office, 2002. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)50731630 Subject: Trails -- Law and legislation -- Illinois. Excerpt: . . . 11 should have some other kind of designation; perhaps not a national park, perhaps a local or State or county site for a level of significance that might be at the local or county level. The utility of the 1989 study I think is important here. We did the preliminary look at measuring up this site against the three major criteria that we use. And the site was recommended to be appropriate under these criteria. Now, the second step, which H. R. 1963 puts us into that step - that is, we would then look how feasible it is and whether or not it makes sort of economic and logistical sense. And, you know, the first question that you ask: Is the site intact enough or is the trail intact enough Those kinds of questions will be studied after this legislation is passed, if it should be passed, and those decisions will be looked at very, very intensely with a lot of stakeholder interest and things like that. Mr. H. Well, I hope the Park Service would level with us EFLEY on this, because you are the experts and you know much better than we do sitting here whether something really fits and whether it really is feasible. I think these kinds of things add to the mosaic of our country. I remember my father was a great historian, and when we would go on vacation trips - and I cant tell you the...
